LUGPA Announces 2020-2021 LUGPA Board of Directors

CHICAGO, IL, November 8, 2020 – LUGPA is pleased to announce its 2020-2021 Board of Directors. The newly elected Officers are: Jonathan Henderson, MD, Shreveport, LA, President; Evan Goldfischer, MD, Poughkeepsie, NY, President-Elect; Scott Sellinger, MD, Tallahassee, FL, Secretary; and Dave Carpenter, St. Paul, MN; Treasurer.

Newly elected as a member of the LUGPA Board of Directors is Jason Hafron, MD, Troy, MI. Dr. Hafron is a partner and Director of Research at Michigan Institute of Urology. He serves as the Chair of LUGPA Forward and is a member of the LUGPA Program Committee.

“Our Board is full of passionate experts working to amplify the voices of independent physicians and their patients across our industry,” said Celeste Kirschner, chief executive officer of LUGPA. “As we continue battling the COVID-19 crisis, it’s imperative we push even harder for the preservation and advancement of independent urology practices. I’m confident the Board of Directors will continue LUGPA’s mission to preserve and advance the independent practice of urology even in the face of ongoing uncertainty.”

Continuing 2020-2021 Board members are: Past President, Richard Harris, MD, Melrose Park, IL; Michael Fabrizio, MD, Virginia Beach, VA; Alan Winkler, San Antonio, TX; David Albala, MD, Syracuse, NY; Jeffrey Spier, MD, El Paso, TX; David Ellis, MD, Rosemont, PA; Mara Holton, MD, Annapolis, MD; and E. Scot Davis, Little Rock, AR.

About LUGPA

LUGPA is a trade association that represents independent urology group practices in the U.S., with more than 2,170 physicians who make up more than 25 percent of the nation's practicing urologists, and provide more than 30 percent of the total urologic care in the U.S. The Association is committed to providing the best resources and information for its member practices through advocacy, research, data collection and benchmarking efforts. LUGPA advocates for independent urology practices by promoting quality clinical outcomes, fostering new opportunities and improving advocacy in the legislative and regulatory arenas.
