E. Scot Davis is Elected to LUGPA Board of Directors

CHICAGO, IL, November 8, 2019 – E. Scot Davis was elected to LUGPA's Board of Directors at the 2019 Annual Meeting held on November 7-9 in Chicago.

As its CEO, E. Scot Davis has played an instrumental role in the development and evolution of Arkansas Urology, located in Little Rock. Davis joined the practice as its CEO in May of 2013.

Davis' extensive contributions to healthcare prior to Arkansas Urology include service as the CFO of Baptist Medical Group and CFO of Northeast Arkansas Clinic in Jonesboro. Davis is also a member of the Arkansas Medical Group Management Association and the American Medical Group Association.

"Serving as CEO of a urology practice has allowed me to witness firsthand the unmatched passion of our independent physicians," said Davis. "I now, more than ever, am dedicated to furthering, protecting and defending independent urologists and I believe I can honor that commitment through my service on the LUGPA Board of Directors."

Davis received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a Master of Public Administration from Memphis State University. He also earned a Master of Business Administration from Christian Brothers University. Davis has over 25 years of physician practice management experience with expertise in operational efficiency, physician recruitment, joint venture arrangements and compensation modeling.

About LUGPA

*LUGPA is a trade association that represents independent urology group practices in the U.S., with more than 2,200 physicians who make up more than 25 percent of the nation's practicing urologists, and provide more than 30 percent of the total urologic care in the U.S. The association is committed to providing the best resources and information for its member practices through advocacy, research, data collection and benchmarking efforts. LUGPA advocates for independent urology practices by promoting quality clinical outcomes, fostering new opportunities and improving advocacy in the legislative and regulatory arenas.
